¹ In addition to being a member in good standing, an attorney seeking to practice law in New Jersey on a non-pro hac vice basis must also complete a "skills and methods course" in New Jersey. N.J. COURT RULE 1:21-1(a). Because I do not practice law in New Jersey, I have not completed the "skills and methods course." Accordingly, although in good standing, I remain administratively ineligible to practice law in New Jersey until I do so. Nevertheless, I remain fully eligible to practice law in New Jersey, like other states, by way of pro hac vice admission.
